Re: U.S. v. Brinae Thornton, Case No. 20 Cr 626-PMH-17
Letter Motion to Adjourn Sentencing

Dear Judge Halpern:

I would like to request a four-week adjournment of sentencing in the above case, currently set for May 4, 2023 at 2:30 p.m. I have a lengthy trial commencing on May 8 in Brooklyn in a homicide case that has been pending for three years (People v. Williams, Ind. 2146/18). All counsel have been advised by the presiding judge to clear our calendars of any engagement that might interfere with the commencement of the trial. Given this directive, and to ensure Mr. Thornton's interests are fully represented at her sentencing, I request a four-week adjournment of sentencing until after June 1. (I will be unavailable after June 27 for several weeks.) The government consents to this request.

Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

JEFFREY CHABROWE, ESQ.
